Dear Ann,

I 0  am  back in Brighton now after a great holiday with Rosie 1   Dublin. I really enjoyed it. We travelled 2   train and boat. I hated the boat journey – I tried 3   sleep but it was very difficult. We 4   both very tired when we arrived, but her parents were waiting for us. We stayed with them for two weeks and they cooked lovely meals 5   us. I practised my English all 6   time. We visited Rosie's friends and also some 7   Dublin's beautiful buildings. The castle was closed so we just looked 8   the outside. I liked the university 9   much and I'm sending 10   photo of Trinity College. It was raining most of the time, but everything else was fantastic.

See you when you come back to Brighton.

Love, Maria

Peter and I were travelling on the seven o'clock bus this morning and I left on the seat my blue bag with four of my textbooks in it. It's lucky that my mobile phone wasn't inside it too. I phoned the bus station from university and said it was on number 64. I hope they find it. See you tonight.

LOVE, TOM
