1. Types of Conditional Sentences. Match a sentence A-F with a description 1-6.

A. If a virus attacks a computer, it prevents it from working properly. (zero conditional)

B. If their best side plays, Manchester United will probably come out on top. (first conditional)

C. If I had enough money, I would buy a new digital camera. (second conditional)

D. If you had told me you needed some advice, I would have helped you. (third conditional)

E. Our firm would not be in debt today if we had listened to our accountant. (mixed conditional)

F. If I knew anything about business, I would have started my own one long ago. (mixed conditional)

1. a condition which is impossible/improbable in the present

2. an impossible past event because of a past cause

3. a statement of general fact

4. an impossible present situation because of an impossible past condition

5. a condition that is possible/probable in the future

6. an impossible past situation because of an impossible general (including the present) condition

2. Unreal Conditionals 1. What are the real facts behind these sentences?

e.g. You wouldn't have such a nasty cough if you didn't smoke so much.

You smoke a lot, so you have a nasty cough.

1. If I could drive a car, I would buy one immediately.

_____

2. If I could drive a car, I wouldn't have gone to Istanbul by bus.

_____

3. If you hadn't told Jane, nobody would have learned that we are cousins.

_____

4. If you hadn't told Jane, nobody would know that we are cousins.

_____

3. Unreal Conditionals 2. Make conditional sentences from the following facts (the resulting sentences will be Type 2, Type 3, or Mixed).

e.g. I don't speak French. I won't apply for that summer job in Paris.

If I spoke French, I would apply for that summer job in Paris.

1. You don't spend enough time with the children. They don't like you.

_____

2. I spent two years in Spain as a student. I learned Spanish.

_____

3. I spent two years in Spain as a student. I speak Spanish fluently now.

_____

4. He stole money from the company. He spent 5 years in prison as a result.

_____

5. Tom and Mary are having a row because she lost his squash racket.

_____

6. You are so gullible! You believed all the lies he told you!

_____

7. I didn't look after my teeth, so I have to wear false ones now.

_____

8. I went on a sea cruise when I was twenty. There, I met Gloria and fell in love with her at first sight. I am happily married now, and we have two lovely children.

_____

4. What's wrong? Correct the mistakes in these sentences.

e.g. I would have come to the party if they ~~invited~~ me.

had invited

1. If I have a little free time this weekend, I promise I call you.

_____

2. I won't lend you any money unless you don't promise to pay me back a.s.a.p.

_____

3. I wouldn't be broke now if I didn't go shopping yesterday.

_____

4. I wouldn't have passed the test if Christina hadn't been helped me.

_____

5. I would have gone up in the mountains last weekend if it wouldn't rained so heavily.

_____

6. If I am in your place, I will start looking for a new job immediately.

_____

7. If I was born in America, I might be living a much better life now.

_____

8. If it wasn't your help, I would never have got the job.

_____

5. Put the verbs in brackets in the right form to make conditional sentences.

1. You will smell if you _____ (not change) your clothes.
2. Unless you turn that music down, I _____ (go) mad.
3. She _____ (not have) so many accidents if she drove more carefully.
4. If you shake that bottle, it _____ (not be) fit to drink.
5. If you _____ (wear) your sunglasses, nobody would have recognized you.
6. I could repair the roof myself if I _____ (have) a longer ladder.
7. I _____ (bring) you some food if I had known that you were hungry.
8. Even if you had asked her permission, she _____ (not let) you go.
8. If I didn't hate Jack so much, I_____ (help) him with his problems last year.
9. Unless it is a nice day we _____ (not go) anywhere.
10. The grass would look much better if you _____ (water) it more often.
11. If I _____ (not study) medicine, I wouldn't be a doctor now.
12. If he _____ (take) my advice he wouldn't have ended up in prison.
13. You _____ (make) any friends if you keep being so unsociable.
14. Had I not forgotten to lock the door, the burglars _____ (not be able) to get in.
15. If Cinderella's mother _____ (not die), her father _____ (not remarry).